

TOSCANA IGT
AQUA DI VENUS

Color	Light pink.
Aroma	Subtle aromas of wild strawberries, spices and an icy touch.
Tasting profile	Gentle flavors lead to a distinctive, bold and well-defined palate. The finish stands out with a straightforward mineral profile.
Full tasting Notes	A rosé reminiscent of Provence with a deeply Tuscan character.
Food pairings	Chilled appetizers, oven-baked fish, fish soups, roasted game and offal-topped toasts.
Winemaking notes	The grapes are pressed very gently so as not to lose the primary aromas. Following the natural clarification of the must, fermentation takes place in steel at a low temperature. The wine is aged in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks.
The story	According to the Greek poet Homer, Venus was the daughter of Jupiter and the ocean nymph Dione. The goddess was born emerging from the sea on a large shell. Botticelli depicted The Birth of Venus in one of the most iconic works of art of the Renaissance. Completed in 1485, the painting was commissioned by the court of Lorenzo the Magnificent. Botticelli's Venus continues to be a global icon of elegance and sensuality.
Production area	Tuscany.

WINEMAKING DETAILS

GRAPE VARIETIES	VINEYARD	AGING	SERVING TEMPERATURE
34% Syrah, 33% Sangiovese, 33% Pinot Grigio.	Coastal area in Southern Tuscany.	Three months in stainless steel vats.	8°

DID YOU KNOW?

The glass in this bottle is unique and exclusive to Ruffino. The design was inspired by the shell in which Venus was born.